

CORPORATE SPONSORSHIP

Studies tell us that only 20% of the nearly 30 million Americans who struggle with an eating disorder will get the help that they need. Consequently, every 52 minutes, someone dies as a direct result of their eating disorder. The greatest barrier in accessing treatment is the expense, and it is not okay that so many are losing their lives because they cannot afford treatment. Full recovery is possible for every person, and Bring Your Brokenness is committed to changing these statistics. Will you join us in sustaining hope and healing for all those who struggle with eating disorders? Our Corporate Sponsors help make this possible.
